FOREWORD

As we, the Senior Class, stopped to look back over our Senior year at Central, we began to realize how the events and happenings of the year formed links which developed into a chain, upon which hung charms reminding us of all of the special happenings that have had a particular bearing on our school lives this year.

The Annual Staff has tried to portray to you, through the use of a chain and charms all happenings of the school year. May you, as you look at this annual, enjoy seeing and reading these special events and happenings.

Dedication

Many opportunities have been given to us as students here at Central--the athletic field is nearing completion, a football team with new uniforms is practicing, and the band has new West Point-type uniforms.

These opportunities would have been impossible to achieve without the help and cooperation of the citizens of the County, the school board and administration, parents, and friends. So it is with grateful hearts that we, the Senior Class, dedicate this 1958 Edition of the BUCCANEER to the CITIZENS OF BUCKINGHAM COUNTY.

We, the Seniors of 1958, have arrived at the long-awaited, long-hoped-for year. We ordered rings, calling cards, and announcements, measured for and ordered caps and gowns, presented the senior play, "The Defiance of David Charles," planned for the senior trip, and now we leave you, Ole! Central, with pleasant memories to take our place in the world.

We, the Juniors of 1958, filled with a desire and need for money, got busy and made ourselves known as we sold stationery, put on a paper drive, sponsored bake sales, and gave a Junior Class Play. In addition to these activities, we topped off the year by giving the Junior-Senior Prom. The year went all too fast, and now we face the highlight of our school life---our Senior year.

We, the Sophomore Class, are planning early for our remaining two years of high school. Ways of raising money have been planned and have proved to be a success. Money collected from the magazine campaign has been put into this plan of ours and also class dues were adopted to offset many of our future expenses.

Having planned financially for our Junior and Senior years we can look forward to them with anticipation.

We, the Freshman Class, of 1958, are standing on the threshold of high school. The choices made this year, and the foundations laid will in a large part set the course for the next three years.

We have begun to realize that the class that works hard, develops good leaders, cooperates well, participates in school activities, and plays its part in its limited opportunities for important places, will be the class that will be called outstanding when the Senior year arrives. Therefore, we are striving to reach this goal.

We, the Sub-Freshmen Class of 1958, came into our new surroundings at B.C.H.S. from the three elementary schools of the County. We have experienced many new rules and regulations as well as new subjects. As sub-freshmen, we are not permitted to belong to any clubs except the 4-H, therefore, we are looking forward to next year when we will be able to choose those clubs and organizations we would like to say we are a part of.

ACTIVITIES

Drums: Bill Yancey, Jo Nuchols, Jerlene Shelton, Mary Hanes, Jo Ann Taylor, Beulah Hellard.

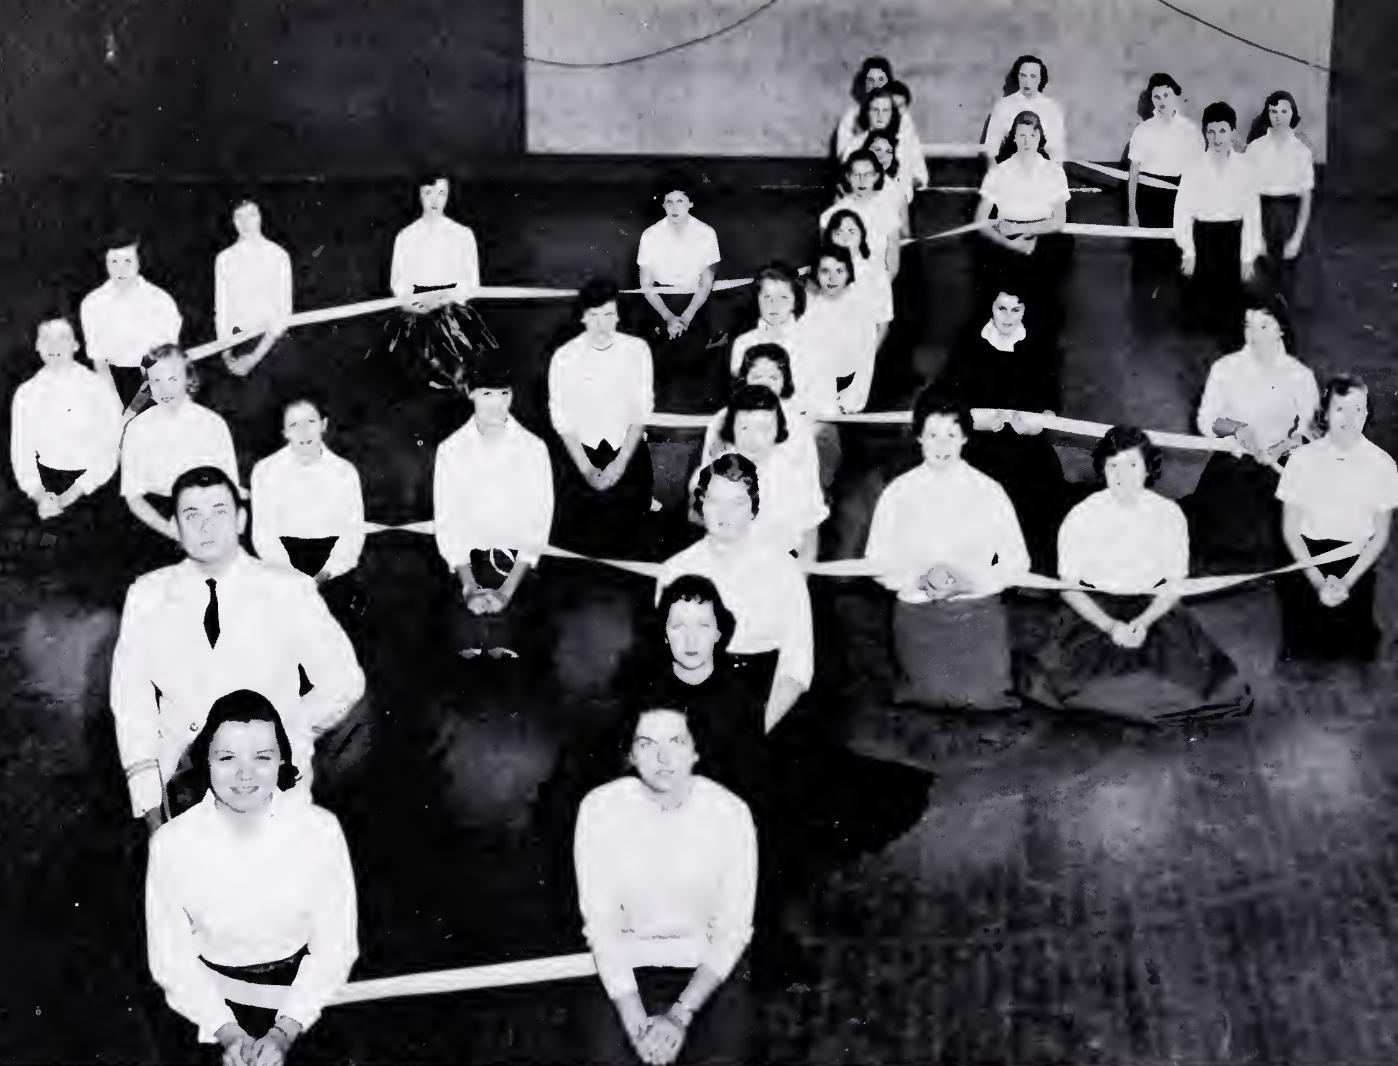

E.B. Knapp, Director

The B.C.H.S. 57-piece Band has done about everything a band can do in one year. In the Fall they won second place in the parade of the Apple Harvest Festival and played at the University of Virginia-Clemson game, and the Jamestown Festival. During the year they made their annual visit to Randolph-Henry for their concert there and then in May they participated in the annual Buckingham Music Festival.

Various money raising campaigns were headed by the band which enabled them to have a new look-West Point type uniforms, a banner, and a new set of drums.

The band was organized as other school organizations having the following officers: Jane Pennington, President; Bonnie Jamerson, Secretary; Patricia White, librarian; Kenneth Bryant, reporter.

Girls' Chorus

Bottom to Top: Gladys I. Poe, Rosellen McCowan, Nyoka Connatser, Myrtle Walters, Gladys Frazier, Geraldine Taylor, Vivian Warsing, President, Jane Staton, June Ownby, Lucille Walters, Ethel Ragland, Linda LeSueur, Barbara Staton, Jane Allen, Mary Stanley, Betty Gowin, Librarian, Betty Christian, Jean Seay, Ruby Lann, Audrey Dolan, Betty Hellard, Gladys M. Poe, Reporter, Phyllis Poe, Tempy Hanes, Eunice Fender, Secretary, Margie Newton, Mary Moore, Dainey LeSueur, Bernice Stiles, Christine Harris, Jane Pennington, Pianist, E.B. Knapp, Director. Not Pictured: Dorothy Horne.

The Girls' Chorus has had quite a busy, but fine school year. At Christmas, the group joined with the Boys' Chorus and presented an operetta entitled "The Nativity."

The girls also participated in an Easter program and in May they did an outstanding job in the annual Music Festival.

During the year concerts were given for the student body and in January the group traveled to Randolph-Henry for their annual concert there.

Memories of hard work and much pleasure linger with each of the members of the chorus.

The Boys Chorus got off to a fine start this year with twenty-six members. They participated in programs including the Christmas Pageant, in co-operation with the Girls Chorus and Miss Judith Carson, Head of dramatics, their annual trip to Randolph Henry High School to present a program and last but certainly not least they participated in the annual Music Festival. All of these activities went to make up a very successful year.

Freshmen: Mary Maxey, Peggy Crews, Marian Blake, Martha Christian, Carolyn Caul, Edith Moss. Sub-Freshmen: Carolyn Shepherd, Jo Ann Wood, Margaret Wright, Nancy Willis.

Majorettes

This year, for the first time in the history of our band we have a group of 21 majorettes. Several girls were chosen from each class, and they, as well as the band, have new uniforms. These girls have performed with the band at the Apple Harvest Festival in Charlottesville and also at football games.

Football

Inexperience at key positions, the lack of any concentrated reserve strength, and the installation of a completely new system as well as a new sport with no league games are but a few reasons why the B.C.H.S. team will have to work harder than any other team in the district to have a winning season next year.

Coach Franklin has worked hard and he feels his task is large. He promises no miracles, but there is confidence that our team will be a fighting outfit that won't be beaten without putting forth its best effort. Our boys want to play, and that's half the battle. Good luck for '59, boys!

Fourteen girls answered the November call for girl's basketball practice. Of this number, four were Seniors, four Juniors, and the rest were Sophomores and Freshmen.

The girls chose Sue Agee as their captain with the following as alternate honorary captains; Moore, Dunnnavant, and Cobb.

The team had daily practice as well as two scrimmage games before the first string was chosen.

The offensive unit had Cobb at center, Dunnnavant and LeSueur as right and left forwards. Firestone and Pennington performed as able substitutes.

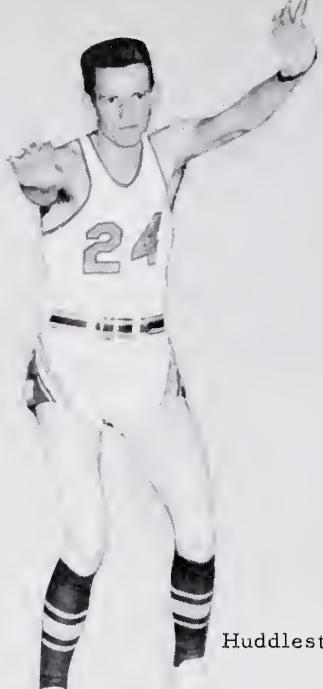

For defense the guarding unit was led by Agee, Moore and Hanes. Stout and Moss contributed their talents as substitutes.

The other team members although they did not play as often as the above mentioned contributed to the cause by practicing and being ready to substitute when called upon. These were Baber, Lightfoot, Maxey, and Marks.

Boys' Basketball

The basketball season for the boys started out on November 1. With eleven boys coming out for the first practice. The boys worked hard at practice each night to learn the new man to man defense, set up by Coach Conway.

Lettermen returning from last year's championship team were Pete Gowin, Donnie Davis, Shirley Wilkerson, Cecil Huddleston, Warren Wootton, William Mason, Ickie Ritter, and Bucky Falls. New members were Donald Reardon, Charles Baber, and George Taylor.

Among the eleven mentioned, the starting five players were: Pete Gowin and Warren Wootton, forwards, Shirley Wilkerson, center, and Donnie Davis and Cecil Huddleston, guards.

Pete Gowin was chosen captain and Shirley Wilkerson and Warren Wootton as alternate honorary captains.

The team looks good this year and they have hopes of developing into a championship team.

The S.C.A. stands for Student Co-operative Association. This organization tries to promote better co-operation between the students and teachers.

The S.C.A., working together with the student body has tried to make a very successful year. Stressing the importance of school spirit has been one of its aims. To support this, school booster buttons were sold and an honor system has been established.

Beta Club

The Beta Club is a national honorary society. To become a Beta member one must show himself to be outstanding in leadership, scholarship and character.

This year the Beta Club sponsored a Christmas Dance, showed good attendance at the convention this spring and contributed to The Crippled Children's Society of Virginia. It also sponsored a May Day Program which is the first program of this type ever presented at Central.

Jr. Hi-Y

The Jr. Hi-Y is a busy organization. They have collected food and toys for needy families, sock-hops were given during examination days, a talent show was planned and presented to the students and several bake sales were held. All profits will be used to send delegates to the Model General Assembly and to Blue Ridge, North Carolina.

F.F.A.

The F.F.A. Chapter, which stands for Future Farmers of America, is composed of boys who have taken vocational agriculture at least one year. The chapter entered projects in the Five-County Fair, State Fair, and Lynchburg Farm Show. Other projects they have taken are helping to raise money for the Athletic Field, Cooperating with the F.H.A. in sponsoring a Sweetheart Dance, and collecting food and clothes for needy families for Christmas. The purpose of the F.F.A. is to develop leadership, citizenship, and to learn new skills in farming.

"The Centralizer" is our school paper, and throughout the students are allowed to express their views and opinions. Its purpose is to inform the students of B.C.H.S. as to the events around school.

At the beginning of the year the editor, senior art editor, business manager, and senior sports writers were elected by the Senior class. The assistant editor, junior art editor, assistant business manager, and the junior sports writers were elected by the Junior Class.

This has been a very busy year for the staff members and the sponsor. Through the co-operation of every staff member, advisor, and typist, the paper has been out on schedule. The staff hopes "The Centralizer" has proved to be of interest to the students.

"The Buccaneer" is the name of our school yearbook which is published annually by staff members elected from the Senior Class.

The year started with the selling of ads. Members of the Senior Class went to the surrounding towns and areas trying to sell them.

Layouts were then planned and sent in to the company. These were sent back as proofs to be checked and rechecked.

The staff has worked very hard trying to put out a good yearbook but it would never have been possible without the co-operation of everyone in school.

A light comedy, hard working Seniors, and a patient director made up the Senior Play. The play, "The Defiance of David Charles", was presented on November 22, 1957, at 8:00 P. M. in the school auditorium.

The setting of the play was a typical day in a high school corridor and principals' office.

Class Poem

When June again comes knocking in fifty-eight,
We pack our belongings to leave Central's gate.
To battle the elements of study or work,
As we've learned our lesson well, never to shirk.

We hate to part with friends in this Senior Class,
Because our good-bys to many may be our last.
We leave you dear teachers and friends so kind,
And march to the future, our places to find.

Our five years are ending as time marches on,
Now may each of us keep in tune with a song.
When troubles find you, they very often do,
Use both courage and wisdom to see it through.

Each one has a future to strive for and give,
The fruits of Old Central, as long as we live.

Linda Scruggs

Class Song

We, the class of '58
Soon will say "Good-bye"
To our friends and classmates dear
Here at Central High.

We remember--yes we do
How we laughed and sighed
Yet learned lessons of each day
And by rules abide.

How much fun we all have had!
In our high school years
As our parting day draws near
Our eyes fill with tears.

We remember, but--so long
Still our thoughts stay here
Now the future beckons us
"Good-bye" Central dear.

Jane Pennington
Linda Scruggs

*Tune: "Love Me Tender"

Class History

Thirty-five savages, shouting a war cry;
To conquer Arvonia or thus gladly die,
By securing for each an education and develop talents and vocations.

The smoke-signal flew, we had lost five;
Chants could be heard like a bee hive.
Yet the battle went on; the tom-tom beat,
As studies and requirements we tried to meet.

This year a disturbing rumor flew,
That at Arvonia, we were through.
Armed with tongues for tommy-hawks;
Twenty-five voices raised a squawk.

When September again rolled around;
Eighteen youths were Central bound.
Two tribes joined forces, the peace-pipe smoked,
Our last years jitters now seems a joke.

Evelyn Newton

Arvonia

Our Charm bracelet complete, the clasp firmly holds,
Our treasures of memories, more precious than gold.

Buckingham

When we entered Central in fifty-four,
Eighty-one Indians came through the door;
To strum on our heart-strings, many a new face,
And make Old Central a wonderful place.

The halls echo with seventy-seven battle cries,
As the warriors for another feather tries.
Now to get busy, we must start today,
For our diplomas are now on their way.

Sixty proud warriors, chiefs and squaws;
Could now be heard in Centrals halls;
Mingled with the noise of saws and hammers,
Twas very hard to learn our grammar.

Arvonia we welcomed into the tribe,
And rules and customs tried to describe.
Sixty-two people got down to work.
We've learned by now never to shirk.

Fifty-six Indians, conquered at last,
The years have flown so very fast,
For now we leave Centrals reservation,
To take our place in this, our nation.

Linda Scruggs

Class Prophecy

It is now the year of 1963. The class of 1958 is returning to Central for their fifth class reunion to witness a homecoming game between Buckingham and Farmville with the dance following it in the gym. Taking up tickets was now the professional salesman, Irvin Catlett, who told us that Gladys Moore and Buck Mason now "Mr. and Mrs." along with Jessalyn and her husband, Shelton Foster, had already seated themselves in the section reserved for our group. As we approached our seats, we saw a usual group coming to join us, they were Miss Beverly Reardon, now a professor at Radford College, Gladys M. Poe, now Mrs. Pete Shumaker, Vivian Warsing, now Mrs. Harry Huddleston and Miss Shirley Snoddy now a secretary in Washington, D. C. Shirley told us that she had seen Tempy Hanes and Patricia White the day before and they told her that they had a modeling show scheduled for that afternoon, and would arrive later.

Approaching our section we saw a group who are now in the armed forces, leading the group was the honorable Bobby Green, now a Marine Captain, followed by Cary Bryant, Leroy Phaup and Henry Newton who were in the Navy stationed at Norfolk. Also in the armed forces Acey Taylor, Herman Newton, Ed Wilmoth and Ronald McCowan who were previously stationed at Fort Jackson, South Carolina. Last but not least was Ickie Ritter whom Uncle Sam made it rather difficult for him to return for our reunion as he was stationed with the Air Force in Japan. Ickie said when he reached New York to wire home who should he see as telegraph operators but Claude Kail and Lindsay Tapscott. After boarding his plane for home he was surprised to see the most attractive airline stewardess, Miss Audrey Dolan. They chatted for quite a while and she told Ickie that the pilot of their plane was Roy Hill with Clifford Wootton as co-pilot. After a stop over in Washington among the passengers who boarded the plane was Hubert Bryant and Jerry Jamerson now astronomers with an Institute in Washington. They said that also in Washington was Evelyn Newton who was a professor at Strayer Business School.

Among the new arrivals to the game were Marion Crump, now Mrs. Joe Rothgeb, Gail Waycaster, now a secretary in Memphis, Tennessee, and Sue Senger, now Mrs. Melvin Wooten. Sue said she and Melvin were making their home in the County. Also we saw Annie Ruth Hudgins a private secretary and book-keeper for her husband, Mr. James Jones. Annie Ruth told us that while they were on vacation in New York they saw Patsy Shuler, now Mrs. Jimmie Banton and Hilda Gough who was living with her husband, Earnest Taylor, stationed in New York.

Next we met the artist of our class, Eunice Fender, who introduced us to her manager. Eunice is working with a studio in Richmond. Also among those who ventured to Richmond after graduation were Shirley Huddleston, Lois Spencer, Mary Shores and Dora Dean, now Mrs. Aubrey Amos, who were employed as secretaries for business firms.

Two members of our class have become quite outstanding figures in the field of sports. With basketball as a profession, we find Maxine Cobb and in baseball, Warren Wootton has become pitcher for the New York Yankees.

Only one of our members chose to return to Central to teach. In the home making department we find the retired Mrs. Morgan replaced by another Mrs. Morgan, being, of course, the former Sue Agee, now Mrs. Ewell Morgan.

Choosing the profession of her husband we see Betty Ruth Dunnivant, now Mrs. Billy Abernathy, a lieutenant in the Waves.

The class of '58 seems to have turned out quite a politician for we learn that L. P. Gilliam is now the Mayor of Dillwyn.

Arriving for the dance that night we saw several other married couples. As we talked with them we find that Betty Jean Gowin married her old heart-throb Cecil Huddleston. Along with them were Linda Scruggs now an operating room nurse at Virginia Baptist Hospital accompanied by her fiance, Howard Davenport. They tell us that Gladys I. Poe, now Mrs. Alvin Le Sueur, will arrive a little later. Also they remind us that another late arrival will be Myrie Walters, now a famous country music recording star.

Seated in the seat of honor we find our beloved class sponsor, Mrs. Word, who reports her wealth and her kitten farm.

Furnishing special musical entertainment is an orchestra under the direction of Pete Gowin and Jane Pennington, now engaged to be married. Among the members of their orchestra is their star trumpet player, Maxey Jones.

By now I guess you wonder who we are. Two weeks ago the Rev. John Newton joined together in the state of matrimony the former Charlotte Wright and Bettye Mills to David Cobb and Harry Moss.

The reunion proved to be such a success that the class decided to have another one in 1973.

Last Will And Testament

We, the graduating class of '58, of the County of Buckingham, State of Virginia, and the republic of the United States, being of legal High School age, sound mind, pure of heart, and set in our ways, do declare this to be our Last Will and Testament hereby revoking any and all wills heretofore made by us.

We, the Senior Class of '58, do will and bequeath to the Juniors our position as Seniors and hope they will enjoy the year of '59.

Last Will And Testament

I, Jerry Jamerson, do will and bequeath any talent I have to anyone who needs it.

I, Maxey Jones, do will and bequeath my place as first chair in the band to Buddy Palmer.

I, Claude Kail, do will and bequeath my front seat on Bus No. 8 to Carolyn Taylor instead of Glenn Banton.

I, Ronald McCowan, do will and bequeath my hillbilly talk to anyone crazy enough to take it.

We, Gladys Moore and William Mason, do will and bequeath all our good times we have had together to Doris Carrol and Bobby Shepherd.

I, Bettye Mills, do will and bequeath my ability to go steady with Harry to no one.

I, Harry Moss, do will and bequeath Bettye Mills to no one.

I, Henry Newton, do will and bequeath my strength to all the weak foot-ball players.

I, Herman Newton, do will and bequeath a 1957 Corvette engine to Jimmy Hill to put in his Studebaker so he won't have to push every time he stops at a stop light.

I, John Newton, do will and bequeath anything that I have that is of use to anyone to whoever is able to use it. To Mr. Hurt, I will my ability as a soldier.

I, Evelyn Newton, do will and bequeath to Mr. Shotzberger all the chewing gum chewed in his class with the hopes that it won't "gum up the works" next year.

I, Jane Pennington, do will and bequeath my height to Ruby Maxey.

I, Leroy Phaup, do will and bequeath the back seat on Bus No. 35 to Donald and Lucy Johns.

I, Gladys Irene Poe, do will and bequeath my class ring to Alvin as I've already received my ring from him.

I, Gladys Marie Poe, do will and bequeath my blonde hair to anyone who uses peroxide.

I, Beverly Reardon, do will and bequeath all my unfinished typing letters to Mrs. Word, in hopes she will let Miss Sterrett finish them.

I, Linda Scruggs, do will and bequeath my ability to make a choice to Helen Dolan.

I, Clyde Senger, do will and bequeath my armstrong heater to Shelby Oranges' boyfriend to hold her with.

I, Sue Senger, do will and bequeath my class ring to Melvin Wooten since I've almost worn his out.

I, Mary Shores, do will and bequeath my formula for growing red hair to Mr. Newton, in hopes that it will grow down into his eyes by next year.

I, Pat Shuler, do will and bequeath my ability to talk on the telephone to anyone crazy enough to have a party line. Watch it!!!

I, Shirley Snoddy, do will and bequeath my "freckles" to anyone who likes them.

I, Lois Spencer, do will and bequeath my typing ability to Miss Sterrett, so she won't have to hunt for the keys.

I, Lindsay Tapscott, do will and bequeath my brains to anyone who has less than me.

I, Acey Taylor, do will and bequeath all the good times that I had at B.C.H.S. to anyone who wants them.

I, Myrtle Walters, do will and bequeath nothing to anyone because I am going to take everything with me.

I, Vivian Warsing, do will and bequeath my privilege of being chosen "Miss Buckingham" to represent this county at the Apple Harvest Festival to Becky Clark.

I, Gail Waycaster, do will and bequeath my seat on bus no. 7 to anyone who can afford a dust cloth.

I, Edward Wilmoth, do will and bequeath Bus No. 30 to anyone who can stand the rough roads.

I, Clifford Wooton, do will and bequeath Bus No. 32 to anyone who wants to drive it.

I, Warren Wootton, do will and bequeath my good looks to Joe Nuchols.

I, Patricia White, do will and bequeath my will power to diet to any girl who think they need it.

I, Charlotte Wright, do will and bequeath my ability to eat and not gain weight to all girls on diets.

Now that our bracelet has been completed we, the "Buccaneer Staff", would like to sincerely thank all of those who have helped make this yearbook possible--the advertisers, our friends, the students, the teachers and especially Mr. Newton and our sponsor, Mrs. Word. We hope that you will enjoy this book now and for many years to come. If you do, we will not feel that our work has been in vain.
